

Welcome!

The Court places a high priority on community involvement and support of citizens seeking access to justice. Please let us know if there is information that you cannot find on the court's website. We are committed to improving our service to the District of Oregon.

On this page you can find information about representing yourself in court, obtaining pro bono counsel, and researching matters of public record. You can also learn more about our courthouses and the people who staff them.